AMENDMENTS TO THE DRAWINGS

The attached sheet of drawings includes changes to Fig. 7. This sheet, which includes a part of Fig. 7, replaces the original sheet including the corresponding part of Fig. 7. In block diagram 740 of Fig. 7, "Decrement" has been changed to --Lessen-- so that Fig. 7 is consistent with corresponding amendments made to the specification.

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Reconsideration and allowance of this application are respectfully requested. Currently, claims 1-31 are pending in this application.

Information Disclosure Statement (IDS):

An IDS was filed in the present application on March 21, 2005. The Office Action did not include a fully initialed Form PTO-1449 of that IDS. For the Examiner's convenience, Applicant has therefore attached another copy of the Form PTO-1449 of the March 21, 2005 IDS along with its corresponding postcard receipt. Applicant respectfully requests that the Examiner consider all of the references cited on the Form PTO-1449 and initial and return the Form PTO-1449 as an indication that all of the cited references have been considered.

Objection to the Specification and Claims:

The specification and claims were objected to because of various informalities. For example, the Office Action indicated that "the phrase 'the or each' needs to be replaced by 'each'." Applicant has editorially amended the specification and claim language to improve clarity. However, the above suggestion in the Office Action has not been explicitly accepted. In particular, the specification (see page 9, line 10 to page 10, line 32 and Fig. 3) may relate (but is not limited to) to a session description which conceivably contains details of only one media stream.

Applicant respectfully requests that the objection to the specification and claims be withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter:

Applicant notes with appreciation the indication that claims 4-15, 17-20, 23 and 26-29 would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. These claims have been maintained herein.

Rejection Under 35 U.S.C. §102:

Claims 1-3, 16, 21, 22, 24, 25, 30 and 31 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(e) as allegedly being anticipated by Smith et al (U.S. '732, hereinafter "Smith").¹ Applicant respectfully traverses this rejection.

For a reference to anticipate a claim, each element must be found, either expressly or under principles of inherency, in the reference. Each element of the claimed invention is not found in Smith. For example, Smith fails to disclose "parsing the session description to determine appropriate media application programs for processing at least one media stream of the session description, the session description including data relating to a quality of service policy; determining based on available resources whether participation in the media session is viable using the quality of service policy based on said data," as required by independent claim 1 and its dependents. Smith also fails to disclose "a communications manager for determining based on available resources whether the participation in the media session is viable using a quality of service policy based on quality of service data provided in said session description,” as required by independent claim 16.

The Office Action (see, e.g., page 4, lines 5-10) apparently alleges that the response sent by an end user to a SD Tool in Smith discloses a session description. Applicant respectfully disagrees with this characterization even if this claimed term is given its broadest reasonable interpretation. As described, for example, on page 2, lines 7-17 of the specification, a session description conveys information about a media stream in a multicast media session and thus allows recipients of the session description to participate in the session. For example, a session description typically includes the session name and purpose, the time and date the session will be active, at least one component media stream of the session and information required to participate in the media stream (IP multicast address, port, media format).

In contrast, the end user's response in Smith merely conveys to the SD Tool which session a user has selected to join and cannot be said to be a session description even if this term is given its broadest reasonable interpretation. The end user has no control over the session description. Rather the SD Tool in Smith is responsible for sending a session announcement to the end user. The end user response therefore does not disclose a session description, let alone a session description including data relating to a quality of service policy. It is noted that the session announcement described in Smith also does not disclose any data relating to a quality of service policy, and rather only contains session parameters like media types, formats, time(s) of session(s), session name and description, and type of session (see col. 11, line 60 - col. 12, line 6 of Smith).

Accordingly, Applicant respectfully submits that claims 1-3, 16, 21, 22, 24, 25, 30 and 31 are not anticipated by Smith and respectfully requests that the rejection of these claims under 35 U.S.C. §102 be withdrawn.

Conclusion:

Applicant believes that this entire application is in condition for allowance and respectfully requests a notice to this effect. If the Examiner has any questions or believes that an interview would further prosecution of this application, the Examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned.
